DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 5/7/03 has been entered.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the array of vertical cavity surface emitting lasers, oxide vertical cavity surface emitting laser, MT-type connector and ferrule, human vision, microscope, machine vision, camera, video-image measuring system, touch sensor, high precision arm/stage must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from claims 1, 4-17, 103-107, 110-124, 137. No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

3. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim R jections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claim 1, 5-12, 14, 16-17 and 137 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Feldman et al.

Feldman (Figures 1-8) shows a process of aligning and connecting two substrate wafers 10 and 12 comprising the steps of positioning one wafer close to the other, applying a non-opaque UV-curable adhesive on the wafers, aligning the two wafers together, attaching the wafers together and curing the adhesive for connecting the two wafers wherein the wafers contain such elements as vertical cavity surface emitting lasers, detectors, and other optical devices as optical fibers, mirrors, microelectronic modules, etc which may include lensets and diffractive optical elements. Inherently, the optical fibers are held in a ferrule.

6. Claim 103, 105, 107, 111, 113, 118, 119, 121 and 123-124 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Applicant's admitted prior art (AAPA).

AAPA (Page 2, lines 8-16) shows a process of aligning and connecting an optical fiber to an opto-electronic device comprising the steps of positioning an optical fiber with a target (photo-detector) at one end and the other end of the fiber placed close to a vertical cavity surface emitting laser, turning the laser on to illuminate the fiber, changing the relative position of the fiber and the detector relative to the laser for alignment. Inherently, the optical fibers are held in a ferrule.

Art Unit: 2839

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claim 4, 13, 15, 104, 106, 110, 112, 114-117, 120 and 122 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Feldman et al.

Feldman shows all the features of these claims as described in Paragraph 4 above except an oxide vertical cavity surface emitting laser, MT-type connector and ferrule, human vision, machine vision, microscope, camera, video-image measuring system, touch sensor, precision arm/stage, etc. The instant invention does not provide any reasons or specific problem to be solved by these features. These features are well known and common knowledge. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the instant invention to use these features because this are well known and widely used in the art.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Chino et al. shows an oxide vertical cavity surface emitting laser.
